Attendees to the Southern California Association of Foresters and Fire Wardens (SCAFFW), 90th Annual Wildland Fire Training and Safety Conference should come prepared to spend the night on Thursday May 5, 2022, at 0900 hours (9:00 am), in order to enjoy the full benefits of the Conference Agenda. That would include an outstanding program agenda with some dynamic speakers, an excellent vendor display, some great meals, some fun entertainment and some great networking with peers, coworkers, friends, acquaintances, and other professionals from different departments.

The price for registration at the conference is $130.00. This includes Annual Membership, the price for the conference, lunch and dinner on Thursday, breakfast and lunch on Friday, and lodging on Thursday night at Camp Pilgrim Pines. If attendees show up early and want to stay on Wednesday night, an additional charge of $34.10 will be added for lodging on Wednesday night. If those attendees that stay Wednesday night want breakfast on Thursday morning, an additional charge of $11.20 will be added, as well. Those early attendees will need to pay a total of $175.30 for the conference.

Items that Conference Attendees should bring to Camp would include a pillow, sleeping bag or other bedding, shower towel, change of clothes, sensible shoes, any needed prescribed medications, shaving gear, and any toiletries that may be needed (soap, shampoo, Deodorant, etc.).

We hope to see you all at the Conference!
